

Women in Economics – status quo and ways forward

Women in Economics – status quo and ways forward on 19 November is the first event organized by WinE-DK. We will zoom in on sources for gender imbalances in the economics profession. The group discussions and expert input will be the point of departure for a focus on what we all can do to put diversity in economics on the agenda.

The conference will take place as a Zoom webinar that you can access here:
