

Programme
Zeuthen Lectures and Workshop
September 6-8, 2022
Organized by Niels Johannesen and Claus Thustrup Kreiner

September 6 (room 35.01.06)

15:15-16:45: Zeuthen Lecture I

“The Child Penalty: An Overview.” Henrik Kleven, Princeton University, CEBI & NBER

16:45: Small reception

19:00: Conference dinner at restaurant Famo Carne.

September 7 (room 26.2.21)

9:00-10:10: Session 1: Career Choices

“Unpacking Intergenerational (Im-)mobility: Child vs. Parent Career Preferences.” Maximilian W. Mueller, UC Berkeley.

“Early career, life-cycle choices, and gender.” Torben Heien Nielsen, CEBI, University and Copenhagen.

10:10-10:25: Coffee break

10:25-12:10: Session 2

“Taxing the Gender Gap: Labor Market Effects of a Payroll Tax Cut for Women in Italy.” Enrico Rubolino, University of Lausanne.

“Gender Norms and Labor-Supply Expectations: Experimental Evidence from Adolescents.” Elisabeth Grewenig, University of Munich.

“Ambivalent sexism in a competitive environment. Evidence from a game show.” Natalia Starzykowska, University of Warsaw.

12:10-13:00: Lunch

13:00-14:00: Zeuthen lecture II

“The Geography of Child Penalties.” Henrik Kleven, Princeton University, CEBI & NBER

14:00-14:15: Coffee break

14:15-16:00: Session 3

“Child Penalties in Politics.” Max-Emil M. King, BI Norwegian Business School.

“Event Studies, Endogenous Timing and the Child Penalty.” Ingrid Huitfeldt, Statistics Norway.

“Does the Child Penalty Strike Twice?” Sarah Sander, CEBI, University and Copenhagen.

16:30-17:30: Small reception

September 8 (room 26.2.21)

9:00-10:10: Session 4

“How Does Maternity Leave Allowance Affect Fertility and Career Decisions?” Sebastien Fontenay, University of Bruxelles.

“Causal Effects of Breastfeeding Promotion on Child Health and Development: Understanding the Role of Nutrition.” Anne Ardila Brenøe, University of Zürich.

10: 10-10:25: Coffee break

10:25-12:10: Session 5

“How Americans Respond to Idiosyncratic and Exogenous Changes in Household Wealth and Unearned Income.” Michael Graber, University of Chicago.

“Neighborhoods, Perceived Inequality, and Preferences for Redistribution: Evidence from Barcelona.” Gerard Domènech-Arumí, Boston University.

“Redistribution with Performance Pay.” Pawel Doligalski, University of Bristol.

12:10-13:00: Lunch

13:00-14:00: Zeuthen lecture III

“The Drivers of Child Penalties.” Henrik Kleven. Princeton University, CEBI & NBER

14:00-14:15: Coffee break

14:15-16:00: Session 6

“Optional (Non-)Filing and Effective Taxation.” Luisa Wallossek, University of Munich.

“Automatic Exchange of Information and Real Estate Investment.” Jeanne Bomare, Paris School of Economics.

“Who Gains from Tax Havens?” Julie Brun Bjørkheim, Norwegian University of Science and Technology.