

Workshop, June 28-30, Hornbæk (Denmark)

June 28

In the afternoon: commuting from Copenhagen to Hornbæk and arrival at the hotel.

18:00 Marco Piovesan, Welcome

18:30 Dinner

June 29

Breakfast

- 9:00-9:45 Helene Willadsen: "Intergenerational transmission of preferences"
- 9:45-10:30 Anne Ardila Brenøe: "Parenting Values Moderate the Intergenerational Transmission of Time Preferences"

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

- 11:00-11:45 Henning Hermes: "Motivating Low-Achievers – Relative Performance Feedback in Primary Schools"
- 11:45-12:30 Claudia Zoller: "Busy little bees – An experiment on grit and endogenous time scheduling in early childhood"

12:30-14:00 Lunch and coffee

- 14:00-14:45 Seda Ertaç: "An Economic Approach to Curiosity: Measurement and Correlates"
- 14:45-15:30 Daniel Schunk: "Causal Effects of a Self-Regulation Training in Primary Schools"

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

- 16:00-16:30 Marco Piovesan: "KIDS project"
- 16:30-17:00 Miriam Wüst: "SPOR: a large scale survey among mothers and fathers"
- 17:00-17:30 Esther Chevrot: "Limited and Generalized morality, evidence from Greenland"

18:30 Dinner

June 30

Breakfast

9:30-11:00 Final discussion and Roundtable “Experiments with children, the big why”

Moderator: Marco Piovesan

Participants:

Amalie-Maria Jacobsen, University of Copenhagen

Anne Ardila Brenøe, University of Zurich

Claudia Zoller, Management Center Innsbruck

Daniel Schunk, University of Mainz

Esther Chevrot, University of Copenhagen

Helene Willadsen, University of Copenhagen

Henning Hermes, Norwegian School of Economics

Jimmy Martínez-Correa, Copenhagen Business School

Marco Piovesan, University of Copenhagen

Miriam Wüst, University of Copenhagen

Seda Ertaç, Koc University

Steffen Andersen, Copenhagen Business School

Stinna Ødgaard Winther, University of Copenhagen